

Porter breakout ...

... the manor house

Situated on the first floor and just outside our largest meeting room, this is a very spacious area where refreshments are served or you can choose the option of a working buffet lunch.

This large area is ideal for registration before a meeting and for displaying exhibition stands or you may choose to have an informal meeting in the comfortable seating area.

