The Manor House makes a picturesque backdrop for your photos as you set off to your wedding and we have some other suggestions to add to the sense of occasion.

Extend the celebrations ...

If you and your guests are arriving the night before your wedding, why not arrange a group evening meal to start the celebrations in style?

Or share stories of the special day over a big Sunday lunch before you all set off home. Our residents' bar can be open late on request to allow your guests to share a night cap on their return.

Bubbles and berries ...

You really deserve an extra touch of luxury in your hotel room when you're celebrating. We can arrange treats such as champagne, fresh fruit, chocolates and flowers in your room.

Exclusive use ...

What could be better for your wedding weekend than a private country house in which to relax and celebrate with your guests? The Manor

House is the ideal size to book on an exclusive basis, allowing you to have the entire venue to yourselves.

Check-in and check-out

Rooms are available from 2pm. For security our front door is locked at night, please use the telephone located in the entrance porch to call the night porter.

Rooms should be vacated by 10am on the day of departure. Late check-in or check-out is sometimes available on request for an additional charge.

Transportation

The Manor House is able to recommend local companies to provide transport to and from your wedding venue including taxis, minibuses and coaches.
